

CHAPTER 366

AN ACT to amend the general municipal law, in relation to creating and establishing the Columbia county industrial development agency, and providing for its functions, powers and duties

Became a law June 15, 1976, with the approval of the Governor. Passed on Home Rule request pursuant to Article IX section 2 (b) (2) of the Constitution, by a majority vote, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general municipal law is hereby amended by inserting in title two of article eighteen-A, a new section, to be section eight hundred ninety-five-I, to read as follows:

§ 895-I. Columbia county industrial development agency. For the benefit of the county of Columbia and the inhabitants thereof, an industrial development agency, to be known as the COLUMBIA COUNTY INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AGENCY, is hereby established for the accomplishment of any or all of the purposes specified in title one of article eighteen-A of this chapter. It shall constitute a body corporate and politic, and be perpetual in duration. It shall have the powers and duties now or hereafter conferred by title one of article eighteen-A of this chapter upon industrial development agencies and provided that the exercise of the powers by such agency with respect to the acquisition of real property whether by purchase, condemnation or otherwise, shall be limited to the corporate limits of the county of Columbia, and such agency shall take into consideration the local zoning and planning regulations as well as the regional and local comprehensive land use plans. It shall be organized in a manner prescribed by and be subject to the provisions of title one of article eighteen-A of this chapter. Its members shall be appointed by the governing body of the county of Columbia. The agency, its members, officers and employees and its operations and activities shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of title one of article eighteen-A of this chapter.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
