

Choose Columbia
Columbia Economic Development Corporation

Sarah Sterling

Columbia Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors

Sarah Sterling was appointed to the Columbia Economic Development Board of Directors on December 15, 2015.

Sarah Sterling is a Real Estate Broker for HOUSE Hudson Valley and Supervisor for the City of Hudson, First Ward. Sarah also serves as a member of the Columbia County Industrial Development Agency Board and the Columbia County Capital Resource Corporation Board.

Sterling's community service is extensive. As County Supervisor, Sterling sits on several committees including Economic Development, Health & Human Services, Public Works, Negotiations, Non-Bargaining Unit Management and Sewer Sub-Committee. She serves as Board Secretary for Columbia Economic Development Corporation, Member of the Advisory Council of the Office for the Aging, Advisory Member to the Community Services Board, and on the Hudson Opera House Advisory Board.

Sterling is a former Alderman for the City of Hudson, former Chair of the Hudson IDA, former Treasurer of the Hudson Development Corporation and former Secretary of the Hudson Community Development & Planning Agency.