

Choose Columbia
Columbia Economic Development Corporation

Seth Rapport

Columbia Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors

Seth Rapport was elected to the Columbia Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors on January 29, 2019.

Seth Rapport is President and Owner of Valley Mortgage Company, Inc., a mortgage brokerage firm located in Hudson, NY. Prior to this he was an associate with Rapport, Meyers, Whitbeck, Shaw & Rodenhausen where his work focused in real estate, banking, environmental law, litigation and appellate work. Rapport's membership affiliations include the New York State Bar Association, New York Association of Mortgage Brokers, National Association of Mortgage Brokers, Columbia-Greene County Board of Realtors and the Columbia County Chamber of Commerce. He is an emeritus board member of the Hudson Opera House, the REACH Center, the Hudson Area Association Library, The Fund for Columbia County and Hudson Development Corporation. Seth Rapport holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in History from Yale University and a Juris Doctor Degree from the City University Law School at Queens College.

