

Choose Columbia
Columbia Economic Development Corporation

Kenneth Leggett

Columbia Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors

Kenneth Leggett was elected to the Columbia Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors on June 25, 2019.

Kenneth is a self-employed General Contractor, specializing in new home construction, home additions, as well as electrical, masonry, and plumbing upgrades. Kenneth also owns and maintains several properties in Livingston.

Kenneth serves as Assessor for the Towns of Livingston and Ancram, positions he has held for 45 years and 12 years respectfully. He is a past member of the Livingston Fire Company having served for 23 years.

Kenneth and his long-time partner Diane Popow reside in the hamlet of Livingston. They have four grown children and ten grandchildren.