A New York Transco Project

Project Fact Sheet October 2019

What is NYES?

NYES is an electric transmission upgrade project that will stay within existing utility rights-of-way and property to unbottle New York's electric grid and facilitate the flow of clean energy. NYES will help meet key environmental and economic goals, while providing for a more reliable, resilient system.

Why is NYES needed?

NYES was selected by the New York Independent System Operator (NYISO) to meet identified transmission system upgrades that will improve system performance and unlock clean energy resources. NYES will bolster the power grid to relieve constraints, improve reliability, and help achieve environmental goals.

Core Components

- All work stays within existing utility rights-of-way and on utility property
- Remove and replace 80-year-old 115kV transmission structures
- Build a new 54.5-mile 345kV overhead line from Schodack to Pleasant Valley on a monopole structure
- Build a new switching station in Schodack
- Rebuild an existing switching station in Claverack
- Build a new capacitor bank station and upgrade the existing substation in Pleasant Valley

Permitting & Approvals

On October 18, 2019, NYES submitted an application for a Certificate of Environmental Compatibility and Public Need under Article VII of the New York Public Service Law. The application can be found at www.dps.ny.gov under Case # 19-T-0684. Article VII is a "one-stop-shop" for permitting projects like NYES. More information can be found at www.dps.ny.gov/articlevii.

Community Collaboration

NYES is committed to working with host communities, residents, businesses, landowners, elected and appointed officials, and community groups throughout the entirety of the project process. We want to hear your feedback.

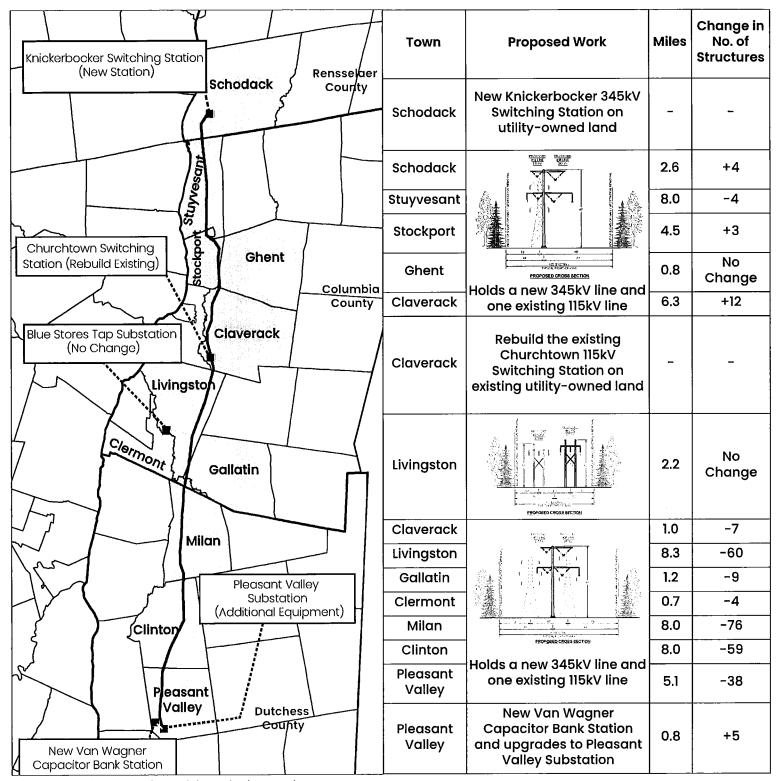

About the Developer

The project is being developed and permitted by New York Transco, an owner and developer of transmission facilities in New York. New York Transco is owned by subsidiaries of National Grid, Con Edison, AVANGRID, and CH Energy Group. www.NYTransco.com

Minutes:

Mr. Calvin made a motion, seconded by Mr. Lapenn to approve the November 26, 2019 minutes as presented. Carried.

Treasurer's Report:

Mr. Tucker reviewed the balance sheet and the profit and loss statements. Mr. Tucker informed the Board that Ms. McNary, Ms. Lane and he were working on wire transfer and ACH capabilities. He noted the ACH would eventually be used to pay bills in addition to retrieving payments. Loan clients would be offered a discounted interest rate for use of ACH. Mr. Spielmann made a motion, seconded by Mr. Leggett to approve the Treasurer's Report as presented. Carried.

Portfolio Review:

Ms. Lane stated Mr. Calcagno was nearly to the end of his loan payments. She noted Serenity Wellness was 4 months in arrears, but would be making a payment before the year ended. She stated the SBA loan would need to be written off. Mr. Lapenn made a motion, seconded by Mr. Cummings to pay off Serenity Wellness' SBA loan with CEDC funds. Carried.

Mr. Spielmann made a motion, seconded by Mr. Lapenn to approve the portfolio report. Carried.

President's Report:

Mr. Tucker stated he was finalizing the Project Manager's job description and would be posting the description with a goal of last response January 20th. Mr. Tucker reminded the Board the Regional Council award announcements would be held the following day. He continued to work with Hudson Valley Fish Farm and Hudson Valley Creamery. Hudson Valley Creamery would be seeking approval from ESD to utilize their CDBG funding to expand their production into a second shift and continue utilizing frozen curd vs their original planned expansion project

Mr. Tucker stated the rail trail study was in the final stages, He had been working with the owners of the former Maguire building, the former Old Chatham Sheepherder's Inn and the former Ackerman's building. He anticipates the bid for the sewer line for the Commerce Park would be bid out in the 1st quarter. He noted he had met with the group who was instrumental in the Saratoga Area Career Jam. He stated they would be interested in doing the same for Columbia County, in partnership with Greene County, Questar III and Columbia Greene Community College.

Mr. Tucker reminded the Board that the tourism articles were being delivered on schedule, and it had been decided that they would be published in the Register Star in the new year. He stated Transco would be attending the January Board meeting and would be giving a five minute presentation regarding their project.

CEDC/County Contract:

Mr. Tucker stated the County had approved CEDC's funding at the 12/11/19 meeting. He asked the Board to approve the CEDC/County Contract for 2020, which was unchanged from the previous year. Mr. Lapenn made a motion, seconded by Mr. Spielmann to approve the contract as presented. Carried, with Ms. Sterling abstaining from the vote due to her position with the County.

CEDC/IDA Contract:

Mr. Tucker reviewed the Drumlin project for the Board, noting there were other potential projects. He noted the contract had not changed from the previous year. Mr. Calvin made a motion, seconded by Mr. Lapenn to approve the contract as presented. Carried, with one abstention by Ms. Sterling due to her position with the IDA.

Paul Harpis – Commerce Center Mortgage Modification:

Mr. Tucker reviewed the project, informing the Board Mr. Harpis was seeking additional year extension. Mr. Harpis had previously been granted an extension. He explained he had received Planning Board approval within the past 60 days. He suggested adding a $1,000 penalty to the current penalty if no movement on the project was made. He informed the Board the IDA had approved a similar extension for their agreement with Mr. Harpis and Limz Machinery on other parcels. Mr. Lapenn made a motion, seconded by Ms. Sterling to approve the one year extension with an additional $1,000 penalty if the project failed to proceed. Carried.

CEDC 2019 Audit Engagement Letter:

Mr. Tucker stated the 2019 audit engagement letter contained the same proposal as the previous year at the same price. Mr. Calvin made a motion, seconded by Mr. Leggett to approve the 2019 audit engagement letter. Carried, with the exception of Mr. Cummings who abstained from the vote due to a personal relationship with the principal of the audit firm.

Membership Update:

Ms. Wilber gave an update on the membership. She informed the Board the 2020 Membership campaign had begun and had brought in $6,300 to date with one new member. She stated 220 letters had been sent to qualified prospects.

AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER Columbia Economic Development Corporation

Purpose

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 1 of the Corporation's bylaws, the purpose of the Audit Committee shall be to:

- Assure that the corporation's board fulfills its responsibilities for the corporation's internal and external audit process, the financial reporting process and the system of risk assessment and internal controls over financial reporting;
- Provide an avenue of communication between management, the independent auditors and the Board of Directors;

Powers of the Audit Committee

- Oversee the work of any public accounting firm employed by the corporation.
- Conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within its scope of responsibility.
- Seek any information it requires from corporation employees, all of whom should be directed by the board to cooperate with committee requests.
- Meet with corporation staff, independent auditors or outside counsel, as necessary.
- Retain, at the corporation's expense, such outside counsel, experts and other advisors as the audit finance committee may deem appropriate.

The CEDC board will ensure that the Audit Committee has sufficient resources to carry out its duties.

Composition of Committee and Selection of Members

The Audit Committee shall consist of not less than three members of the Board of Directors who are independent of corporate operations. The corporation's board will appoint the Audit Committee members and the Audit Committee chair.

Audit Committee members shall be prohibited from being an employee of the corporation or an immediate family member of an employee of the corporation. In addition, Audit Committee members shall not engage in any private business transactions with the corporation or receive compensation from any private entity that has material business relationships with the corporation, or be an immediate family member of an individual that engages in private business transactions with the corporation or receives compensation from an entity that has material business relationships with the corporation.

Ideally, all members on the Audit Committee shall possess or obtain a basic understanding of governmental financial reporting and auditing. The Audit Committee shall have access to the services of at least one financial expert; whose name shall be disclosed in the annual report of the corporation.

The Audit Committee's financial expert should have 1) an understanding of generally accepted accounting principles and financial statements; 2) experience in preparing or auditing financial statements of comparable entities; 3) experience in applying such principles in connection with the accounting for estimates, accruals and reserves; 4) experience with internal accounting controls and, 5) an understanding of audit and finance committee functions.

Meetings

The Audit Committee will meet a minimum of twice a year, with the expectation that additional meetings may be required to adequately fulfill all the obligations and duties outlined in the charter.

Members of the Audit Committee are expected to attend each committee meeting, in person. The Audit Committee may invite other individuals, such as members of management, auditors or other technical experts to attend meetings and provide pertinent information, as necessary.

The Audit Committee will meet with the corporation's independent auditor at least annually to discuss the financial statements of the corporation.

Meeting agendas will be prepared for every meeting and provided to the Audit Committee members along with briefing materials five (5) business days before the scheduled Audit Committee meeting. The Audit Committee will act only on the affirmative vote of a majority of the members at a meeting or by unanimous consent. Minutes of these meetings will be recorded.

A report of the committee's meeting shall be prepared and presented to the board at its next scheduled meeting following the meeting of the committee.

Meetings of the committee are open to the public, and the committee shall be governed by the rules regarding public meetings set forth in the applicable provisions of the Article 7 of the Public Officers Law that relate to public notice and the conduct of executive session.

Responsibilities

The Audit Committee shall have responsibilities related to: (a) the independent auditor and annual financial statements; (b) oversight of management's internal controls, compliance and risk assessment practices; (c) special investigations and whistleblower policies; and (d) miscellaneous issues related to the financial practices of the corporation.

A. Independent Auditors and Financial Statements

The Audit Committee shall:

- Oversee independent auditors retained by the corporation and pre-approve all audit services provided by the independent auditor.
- Establish procedures for the engagement of the independent auditor to provide permitted audit services. The corporation's independent auditor shall be prohibited from providing non-audit services unless having received previous written approval from the Audit Committee. Non-audit services include tasks that directly support the corporation's operations, such as bookkeeping or other services related to the accounting records or financial statements of the corporation, financial information systems design and implementation, appraisal or valuation services, actuarial services, investment banking services, and other tasks that may involve performing management functions or making management decisions.
- Review and approve the corporation's audited financial statements, associated management letter, report on internal controls and all other auditor communications.
- Review significant accounting and reporting issues, including complex or unusual transactions and management decisions, and recent professional and regulatory pronouncements, and understand their impact on the financial statements.
- Meet with the independent audit firm on a regular basis to discuss any significant issues that may have surfaced during the course of the audit.

• Review and discuss any significant risks reported in the independent audit findings and recommendations and assess the responsiveness and timeliness of management's follow-up activities pertaining to the same.

B. Internal Controls, Compliance and Risk Assessment

The Audit Committee shall:

• Review management's assessment of the effectiveness of the corporation's internal controls and review the report on internal controls by the independent auditor as a part of the financial audit engagement.

C. Special Investigations

The Audit Committee shall:

- Ensure that the corporation has an appropriate confidential mechanism for individuals to report suspected fraudulent activities, allegations of corruption, fraud, criminal activity, conflicts of interest or abuse by the directors, officers, or employees of the corporation or any persons having business dealings with the corporation or breaches of internal control.
- Develop procedures for the receipt, retention, investigation and/or referral of complaints concerning accounting, internal controls and auditing to the appropriate body.
- Request and oversee special investigations as needed and/or refer specific issues to the appropriate body for further investigation (for example, issues may be referred to the State Inspector General or, other investigatory organization.)
- Review all reports delivered to it by the Inspector General and serve as a point of contact with the Inspector General.

H. Other Responsibilities of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee shall:

- Present annually to the corporation's board a written report of how it has discharged its duties and met its responsibilities as outlined in the charter.
- Obtain any information and training needed to enhance the committee members' understanding of the role of internal audits and the independent auditor, the risk management process, internal controls and a certain level of familiarity in financial reporting standards and processes.
- Review the committee's charter annually, reassess its adequacy, and recommend any proposed changes to the board of the corporation. The Audit Committee charter will be updated as applicable laws, regulations, accounting and auditing standards change.
- Conduct an annual self-evaluation of its performance, including its effectiveness and compliance with the charter and request the board approval for proposed changes.

FINANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER Columbia Economic Development Corporation

Purpose

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 1 of the Corporation's bylaws, the purpose of the Finance Committee shall be to oversee the corporation's debt and debt practices and to recommend policies concerning the corporation's issuance and management of debt.

Duties and Responsibilities of the Finance Committee

It shall be the responsibility of the Finance Committee to:

A. Review the Corporation's Annual Budget

The Finance Committee shall:

- Review, amend and recommend the corporation's annual operating budget as presented by corporate management for the upcoming fiscal year.
- Monitor and report to the board on the corporation's compliance with its adopted budget during the fiscal year (actual verses estimated budget) on a monthly/quarterly basis.

- Make recommendations concerning the appointment and compensation of investment advisors and underwriting firms used by the corporation, and oversee the work performed by these individuals and firms on behalf of the corporation.

C. Oversee the Corporation's Debt

The Finance Committee shall:

- Review proposals for the issuance of debt by the corporation and its subsidiaries and to make recommendations concerning those proposals to the board.
- Make recommendations to the board concerning the level of debt and nature of debt issued by the corporation.
- Review proposals relating to the repayment of debt or other long-term financing arrangements by the corporation and its subsidiaries.

D. Assess the Corporation's Capital Requirements and Capital Plan

The Finance Committee shall:

- Assess the financial requirements of the corporation's capital plans. The assessment is to include current and future capital needs, a justification of why such capital expenditure is required and an explanation of funding sources for capital projects such as grants, issuance of debtor specified pay-as-you-go resources.
- Review the financial aspects of major proposed transactions, significant expenditures, new programs and services, as well as proposals to discontinue programs or services and making action recommendations to the board.

E. Review Financial and Procurement Thresholds

The Finance Committee shall:

- Review and make recommendations to the board regarding any proposed procurements submitted to the committee.
- Review and recommend changes to the corporation's thresholds for procuring goods and services and procurement policy.
- Review and recommend changes to the corporation's fee schedules.
- Review the scope and terms of the corporation's insurance policies and liability coverage on an annual basis.

F. Other Responsibilities of the Finance Committee

The Finance Committee shall:

- Report annually to the corporation's board a written report of how it has discharged its duties and met its responsibilities as outlined in the charter.
- Review the committee's charter annually, reassess its adequacy, and recommend any proposed changes to the board of the corporation. The Finance Committee charter will be updated as applicable laws and regulations change.
- Conduct an annual self-evaluation of its performance, including its effectiveness and compliance with the charter and request the board approval for proposed changes.
- Annually review both the CEDC and SBA loan funds, including loan policies, lending limits and reserves.

The CEDC board will ensure that the Finance Committee has sufficient resources to carry out its duties.

Composition of Committee and Selection of Members

The Finance Committee shall consist of not less than three members of the Board of Directors who are independent of corporate operations. The corporation's board will appoint the Finance Committee members and the Finance Committee chair.

Finance Committee members shall be prohibited from being an employee of the corporation or an immediate family member of an employee of the corporation. In addition, Finance Committee members shall not engage in any private business transactions with the corporation or receive compensation from any private entity that has material business relationships with the corporation, or be an immediate family member of an individual that engages in private business transactions with the corporation or receives compensation from an entity that has material business relationships with the corporation.

Meetings

The Finance Committee will meet a minimum of twice a year, with the expectation that additional meetings may be required to adequately fulfill all the obligations and duties outlined in the charter.

Members of the Finance Committee are expected to attend each committee meeting, in person. The Audit and Finance Committee may invite other individuals, such as members of management, auditors or other technical experts to attend meetings and provide pertinent information, as necessary.

Meeting agendas will be prepared for every meeting and provided to the Finance Committee members along with briefing materials five (5) business days before the scheduled Finance Committee meeting. The Finance committee will act only on the affirmative vote of a majority of the members at a meeting or by unanimous consent. Minutes of these meetings will be recorded.

A report of the committee's meeting shall be prepared and presented to the board at its next scheduled meeting following the meeting of the committee.

Meetings of the committee are open to the public, and the committee shall be governed by the rules regarding public meetings set forth in the applicable provisions of the Article 7 of the Public Officers Law that relate to public notice and the conduct of executive session.

COLUMBIA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION PROCUREMENT POLICY

Α	Procure	ement	Policy

- 1. Procedure for determining whether Procurements are subject to Competitive Bidding The procedure for determining whether a procurement of goods and services is subject to competitive bidding shall be as follows:
 - a. The CEO or an authorized designee shall make the initial determination as to whether competitive bidding is required. Columbia Economic Development Corporation Whistleblower Policy

General

The Columbia Economic Development Corporation Code of Ethics (hereinafter referred to as the Code) requires board members, other volunteers, and employees to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. Employees and representatives of the Columbia Economic Development Corporation must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling their responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

The objectives of the Columbia Economic Development Corporation's Whistleblower Policy are to establish policies and procedures for:

- The submission of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters by employees, board members, officers, and other stakeholders of the Columbia Economic Development Corporation, on a confidential and anonymous basis.
- The receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by the Columbia Economic Development Corporation regarding accounting, internal controls, or auditing matters.
- The protection of board members, volunteers and employees reporting concerns from retaliatory actions

Reporting Responsibility

Each board member, volunteer, and employee of the Columbia Economic Development Corporation has an obligation to report in accordance with this Whistleblower Policy (a) fraud or suspected fraud, (b) questionable or improper accounting or auditing matters, and (c) violations and suspected violations of Columbia Economic Development Corporation's code (hereinafter collectively referred to as Concerns).

Authority of Audit Committee

All reported concerns will be forwarded to the Audit Committee in accordance with the procedures set forth herein. The Audit Committee shall be responsible for investigating and making appropriate recommendations to the Board; with respect to all reported concerns.

No Retaliation

This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable board members, volunteers and employees to raise concerns within the Columbia Economic Development Corporation for investigation and appropriate action. With this goal in mind, no board member, volunteer, or employee who, in good faith reports concern shall be subject to retaliation or, in case of an employee, adverse employment consequences. Moreover, a volunteer or employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a concern in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including dismissal from the volunteer position or termination of employment.

Reporting Concerns Employees

Employees should first discuss their concern with their immediate supervisor. If, after speaking with his or her supervisor, the individual continues to have reasonable grounds to believe the concern is valid, the individual should report the concern to the Ethics Officer. In addition, if the individual is uncomfortable speaking with his or her supervisor, or the supervisor is a subject of the concern, the individual should report his or her concern directly to the Ethics Officer.

If the concern was reported verbally to the Ethics Officer, the reporting individual, with assistance the Ethics Officer, shall reduce the concern to writing. The Ethics Officer is required to promptly report the concern to the Chair of the Audit Committee, who has specific and exclusive responsibility to investigate all concerns. If the Ethics Officer, for any reason, does not promptly forward the concern to the Audit Committee, the reporting individual should directly report the concern to the Chair of the Audit Committee. Concerns may be also be submitted anonymously. Such anonymous concerns should be in writing and sent directly to the Chair of the Audit Committee.

Deleted: a designated board member

Board Members and Other Volunteers

Board members and other volunteers should submit concerns in writing directly to the Chair of the Audit Committee. Contact information for the Chair of the Audit Committee may be obtained from the Administrative Supervisor.

Handling of Reported Violations

The Audit Committee shall address all reported concerns. The Chair of the Audit Committee shall immediately notify the Audit Committee, Board members, and CEO of any such report. The Chair of the Audit Committee will notify the sender and acknowledge receipt of the concern within five business days, if possible. It will not be possible to acknowledge receipt of anonymously submitted concerns.

All reports will be promptly investigated by the Audit Committee and appropriate corrective action will be recommended to the Board members, if warranted by the investigation. In addition, action taken must include a conclusion and/or follow-up with the complainant for complete closure of the concern.

The Audit Committee has the authority to retain outside legal counsel, accountants, private investigators, or any other resource deemed necessary to conduct a full and complete investigation of the allegations.

Acting in Good Faith

Anyone reporting a concern must act in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates an improper accounting or auditing practice, or a violation of the code. The act of making allegations that prove to be unsubstantiated, and that prove to have been made maliciously, recklessly, or with the foreknowledge that the allegations are false, will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense and may result in discipline, up to and including dismissal from volunteer position or termination of employment. Such conduct may also give rise to other actions, including civil lawsuits.

Confidentiality

Reports of concerns, and investigations pertaining thereto, shall be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

Disclosure of reports of concerns to individuals not involved in the investigation will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense and may result in discipline, up to and including termination of employment. Such conduct may also give rise to other actions, including civil lawsuits.
