

Choose Columbia
Columbia Economic Development Corporation

Eric Mortenson

Columbia Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors

Eric Mortenson was elected to the Columbia Economic Development Corporation Board of Directors on August 25, 2020.

Eric is Owner and Operator of Pulver's Glass, a fourth-generation family-owned and operated business located in Hudson. Eric also holds a real estate salesperson license and works locally.

A life-long resident of Columbia County, Eric is a former member of the Germantown School Board, where he served from 2010-2014. He currently serves on the Gallatin Town Board and is an active volunteer firefighter with the Elizaville Pumper Company.

Eric attended Columbia-Greene Community College. He and his wife Lisa reside in Gallatin.